Consumer Notes: Anime covers a huge range of styles, and this month's lineup proves it! Want adventure? There's Infinite Ryvius, the tale of children stranded in space, whose only hope is a mysterious hidden ship... Like drama? Catch the Rurouni Kenshin Premium Boxset – it's the entire first season of the legendary samurai epic! Fans of psychological horror should check out Witch Hunter Robin; it's moody, stylish, and perfect for your Halloween party. And of course, if comedy's your thing, then get ready for K.O. Beast DVD 3, the final volume of Wan and crew's chaotic quest to track down the treasure of Gaia!

ANIMANIAC'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

What a motley crew have we got for ya this month! To kick things off, Dreamworks Pictures is releasing the highly-acclaimed Millennium Actress - the Grand-Prize winner of The Distinguished Media Arts Festival. Millennium Actress is a timeless story of the rise and fall of a great actress and those moved by her work. From Production IG (the same studio that brought you FLCL (Fooly Cooly), Ghost in the Shell, and Love Hina) comes Mao-Chan! A sweet show about a cute little girl, her grandfather, the military, aliens and tanks! Perhaps you're looking for a different kind of "sweet" this month – if that's the case, you'll wanna be sure to check out the Vanilla Series: Holy Virgins! This adults-only title is a story of passion and lust that defiles the portrait of religion with the portrayal of a nunnery, literally "plagued" with desire.
